SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Quite naturally everyone interested in the welfare and future development of Truckee is concerned with the lively variety of stories being circulated relative to the location of the highway. Truckee's welfare rests primarily on the question.However with the report from Earl Lee Kelly, director of public works, that there are no immediate plans for altering the highway location here and that no funds have been put up in the budget for the next biennium for that purpose, should temporarily, at least, set at rest the unfounded rumors. Mr Kelly should certainly know if anyone does and has made a study to ascertain whether the highway department has made such plans, even vaguely. We can only trust that the new administration will likewise see fit to protect Truckee's greatest asset--its accessability for tourists—and permit the highway to remain where it has served both traveler and town for many years. Certainly, improvements on the present location would be welcomed, but aking all in all, we feel that the highway department has done nobly in maintaining the highway in this area where difficulty marks every step of the job.

Incidentally, California is losing the services of an excellent executive and able leader with the resignation of Earl Lee Kelly, who retires as head of the Department of Public Works on January 1st. It is our sincere belief, however, that such talent cannot long remain buried and we see great things for Mr. Kelly in the future of the state.

It is too bad that interests here are not closer affiliated so that Truckee could offer a unified front in solving its problems, seeking better conditions and in general securing benefits for the community as a whole instead of being forced to face issues as individuals with only scattered voices, too often directed against one another. There is a way. It usually brings forth 'ah's' and 'ohs', and is greeted with hands raised in mystification or wonder but nevertheless it is a solution. That is incorporation. If ever a town succeeded without incorporation we have failed to hear of the fact. On the other hand we can point to thousands that have benefitted many fold from the unity which is necessary in progress of any kind.

HARD TIMES BALL PLANNED BY CLUB FOR DECEMBER 17

About 75 people attended the dance given by the North Tahoe Sports Club at Riola Club Saturday night. Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Those present from Tahoe City were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Correll, Miss Mary Pronzato, Douglas Smith and Walter Mandeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Riola were extended a vote of thanks by the club for acting as hosts.

The club has held several meetings which have been attended by nearly every resident of the community and a great number of very interesting events are planned for the snow season.

There will be a Hard Times Dance on Saturday, December 17, at Riola's, adjoining the Brockway Golf Course. The public is invited. A small door fee will be charged and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Later in the evening refreshments will be served.

Keep Truckee Money In Truckee

Official Declares No Plans Made To Change Highway

Rumors Have Highway On Hill To Eliminate Main Part of Town

NOTHING IN BUDGET

Kelly Says No Plan Is Yet Perfected For Repair Of Highway

Current and persistent rumors that the state highway through Truckee is destined to be changed within the next few months to eliminate the main part of town have been dispelled by a letter from Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly, who declares that no immediate changes by the highway department are contemplated in this locality.

In a reply to a request that he use his influence to keep the highway in its present channel, Mr. Kelly wrote in part:

"I find that no plans have been perfected for a rerouting of the highway through Truckee nor for improvement of the present routing.

"Studies looking to the improvement of the situation in Truckee have not been completed, no money has been set up in the budget for such improvement, and there is no indication that anything will be done in the near future that will disturb the present routing.'

Stories have been circulated to the effect that money has been allocated, plans completed and all in readiness to change the highway to the suggested location on the hill north of town. An investigation has revealed that rights of way have not been secured there and that no plan has been offered for the change.

While eventually there may be a change in the routing it would now seem a remote question.

HAROLD LAITY IS TO BE LOCAL DEPUTY FOR CO. CORONER

W. H. Laity of Truckee has been appointed as deputy coroner of Nevada Couny by A. M. Holmes, who replaces L. R. Jefford, resigned, as county coroner.

He is the first public official in this county to regain office after being retired in a previous election. He defeated Jefford in 1930 and Jefford defeated him in 1934.

Beside Laity, Holmes named Alvin Hooper and W. L. Weaver of Grass Valley; William James of Nevada City as deputies.

No Opposition For Tahoe's New Utility District Anticipated

Election To Be Held Dec. 12 To Form District At Lake

(by Swanee)

TAHOE CITY, Dec. 8— Little or no opposition is anticipated at the special election to be held in the community hall on December 12 at which time the residents of Tahoe City will vote on the proposed formation of a Public Utility District. The matter received unanimous approval of the Placer County Board of Supervisors who were informed that the formation of such a district would not only prove highly beneficial to the residents but would also settle the grievance of disputed water rights. The spring water system that serves the district was reported sold to the Tahoe Water Company by the Tahoe Tavern Co. last summer for $2 000 but application to the State Railroad Commission for approval of rates has not yet been made. Clarence Vernon, chairman of the Tahoe City group, declares that if the election is successful a meeting will be held sometime in May when other Tahoe City residents will have returned. At this time it will be determined what amount will be allowed for the purchase of the system, as well as the amount of repair work and extensions necessary. A bond election will then be held to raise the amount.

Only persons eligible to vote at the last general election may vote in the forthcoming election although all persons to be served by the potential district will be welcomed to all open meetings regarding the district.

The election had been slated for next May but it was disclosed by District Attorney Lowell Sparks that the law requires the election be held within 40 days of the last published notice, making the delay impossible.

Fullest cooperation is assured by the company affected, which is said to favor the plan. Not only will lower rates be available in the near future but an adequate fire fighting system will be possible for the town, a factor now conspicuous by its absence.

Ace Skiier Wins Right To Stay in U.S. at Deadline

Sigurd Ulland, nationally known ski champion, living at Lake Tahoe, has received word from his brother, Olav Ulland, Norway's crack ski jumper, that the latter had, through the efforts of Washington state's congressional delegation received his immigration application for reentry to the United States just 10 minutes before his time would have become final.

Five congressmen of that vicinity worked in behalf of Ulland remaining here after his allotted time had expired and he had left for Canada to wait for the immigration commissioner's ruling on his application for reentry.

The visitor was imported last year by the Seattle Ski Club to teach novices the art of skiing, his work as a trainer being termed as extremely valuable to one of the United States' fastest growing sport.

Following his participation with Olympic teams throughout Europe, his services are much in demand, the Northwestern group recognizing the fact to such an extent that it gained the attention of several busy congressmen.

Englebright Slated For Higher Position In Reorganization

May Be Selected As Aid To Leader If Plans Are Carried Out

The second district's popular congressman, Harry Lane Englebright of Nevada City who, as first Republican whip in the House of Representatives, may be elevated to the assistant leadership if the present assistant leader, Joseph Martin of Massachusetts succeeds to the leadership vacated by the retirment of Rep. Bert Snell of New York, who declined to seek reelection.

Englebright knows what is going on from day to day during a session and can anticipate a vote as accurately as any member on either side of the aisle. As minority whip, it is his duty to know what is going to happen as well as what is happening and he has never been known to be delinquent in his task.

For these reasons, Englebright is bound to figure prominently in the forthcoming minority leadership struggle. He and Martin are close personal friends and if Martin succeeds Snell it is safe to assume that he will Mr. Englebright directly next to him on the leadership bench.

Another potent reason why Englebright will be a major candidate for the post is that he will be a perfect complement to Martin. The latter is from the Atlantic seaboard, while Englebright represents the second largest district in the largest Pacific state, California. If the G. O. P. is really desirous of harmony, here is the chance, say Martin-Englebright supporters, for hands across the continent.

Again, Englebright has worked closely with the senate's minority leader, Charles McNary of Oregon.

Checking Station To Be Operated On 9 Hour Day

"Temporary" Plan Revealed As Three Clerks Are Transferred

TO ISSUE NEW PLATES

Fear Felt Powerful Groups May Have Won Plan For Abolition

From December 21 to February 4 the Truckee department of motor vehicle registration station will be operated only between the hours of 9 a.m . and 5 p. m. and will be closed on Sundays and holidays.

This announcement was made by Carl Smith, chief clerk at the station who said he had not been informed as to what action might be expected after February 4.

While it is sincerely hoped the arrangement is temporary and that the station will resume its normal important functions, there exists a possibility that certain interested groups in the urban areas and state automobile clubs have won in their fight to have the stations permanently closed, abolishing one of the state's most important police centers.

Three of the present clerks, Herbert Bartman, Cecil Vallow and Vernon Barrett are being transferred to other offices to assist in registration work during license renewal period.

Smith and Clerk Frank Carson will remain at the local office.

The Truckee office will start issuing 1939 license plates on January 3 and the clerks will be glad to assist in the registration details, Smith said.

SHOP AT HOME AT CHRISTMAS——

The urge to start Christmas gift buying is here. Store windows are beginning to sparkle with the colorful trappings of Christmas. A gift-season dash brightens up the advertisements; there's holly in the air, and all is ready for the reign of Santa Claus.

Our merchants are cooperating in a delightful conspiracy we all applaud and enjoy. Christms savings are ready to be put into circulation. For the next few weeks, we will all have the same thought—Christmas buying.

Shall we spend our Christmas money in our own community or should we go elsewhere to make our purchases? We make no appeal to support community stores just as a civic duty. True, money spent here goes to build purchasing power here; to help our tradesmen, clerks and merchants. But that, perhaps is not enough. We want the best price and the best quality; we want all our dollars can buy.

There can be no quarrel wih anyone's desire for full value. But we are confident that, if you compare the goods our mer chants display—on the cold basis of dollars and cents value —with the goods of bigger stores in larger cities, you will find that local enterprise and business efficiency more than meet the big city competion.

Local stores have lower overhead, allowing a lower percentage of profit. And you have the added satifaction of kno wing that money spent at home means a greater measure of prosperity at home.

Look into the local shop windows, read the advertisements You will find that the local merchants can serve you well. They have price and they have quality—and gay-colored ribbons and the Christmas spirit to wrap packages in. They're home folks, too.

Let's shop at home this Christmas.

RECESS ON REFORM——

A recess on experimenation, death to a new Reorganization bill, finis to a second attempt to increase the liberal bloc on the Supreme Court are not the only fruits born of the nation's most recent elections.

Bitter as these fruits must be to the New Deal's inner councils, they herald a respite from the turbulent season of change that has swept through every phase of American life since the adminstration's advent in 1933.

There is nothing new nor remarkable in this shift of public sentiment. It is part of the normal rhythm of American politics, and a swing toward conservatism, following periods of vigorous reform, is a familiar landmark on the field of this country's history.

If recent Wshington dispatches are correct, the decision of the New Deal's helmsmen to lay aside plans for reorganizing the judiciary is only the forerunner of a move of far greater importance to American farm and business life. This is the abandonment of the far-flung crop-control program which is facing a gathering groundswell of farmer opposition

A recess n experimenation provides the breathing spell in which businessmen, farm leaders and statesmen, may shape a more workble program for eliminating the social and economic evils and giving the forces of recovery full play!

The Least of Their Worries

(Copyright, W. N. U.)

Politically Speaking

by John W. Dunlap
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8 —(UP)— Question: whether to raise taxes or cut expenses.

That unpleasant situation confronts Governor-elect Culbert L. Olson as he holds daily budget hearings on the knotty problems to be settled before the legislature gets in full swing in a few weeks.

There is a great mass of fixed expense which no governor can change or tamper with. The relatively small portion over which he has control is not always as flexible as it might be. For one thing, it is human nature when seeking funds to ask more than expected and then have it pared to actual needs. State departments are noted for their ingenuity in padding a budget request, which will make it all the harder for Olson to sift the chaff from the wheat.

Right off the bat, he heads into relief difficulties. Harold Pomeroy, the resigned administrator, says from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 will have to be voted in January to carry on the relief activities throughout the present biennium ending June 30. This is above the regular appropriation of some $48,000,000 and is one reason why Gov. Frank Merriam's deficit took a sharp upcurve. Merriam prefaced his 1937-39 budget with a warning the deficit might get to $22,000,000 but the best figures available indicate it will be closer to $35,000,000.

Take state institutions as a small example of what confronts the new governor. The department was given more than $20,000,000 in the last budget, and will require as much for the next two years, but is seeking more than $16,000,000 for permanent construction to relieve overcrowding. Olson is making weekend tours to see just how much of this is needed, but at best, can include only a small amount in the budget.

The governor says he will try to get federal aid to handle some of these larger institutional projects. That seems to be his chance of keeping down the various budget headaches. He will go to Washington before Christmas and lay his cards on the table before President Roosevelt and Works Progress Administrator Harry Hopkins.

The fact that Olson is a Democratic governor and senator-elect Sheridan Downey also belongs to the party, may help the California cause in Washington. On the other hand, the WPA has announced a curtailment of expenditures so the future is none too rosy.

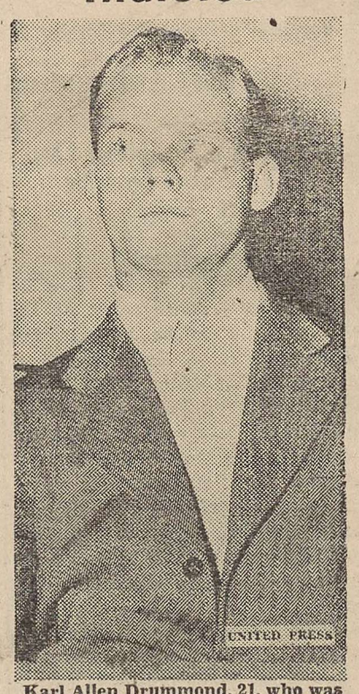

If tax raising becomes necessary, several plans have been suggested. For one thing, Dr. H. Dewey Anderson, of Stanford University, has been Olson's chief budget advisor and is known generally to favor an increase in the income tax.

A tax method found successful in some states is the severance tax on minerals taken from the ground. Some of Olson's advisors advocate a higher return from race horse betting, as compared to the four per cent now returned to the state. With the renewed interest in racing, and the success of the new track at Inglewood, this would bring in a tidy sum each year. Dog racing might be brought back with legalized betting.

The board of equalization is watching some suggested tax increases, especially on liquor. For that matter, the board is no little perturbed by the Sacrameno superior court descision exempting private clubs from paying the retail sales tax on food served members. If the decision sticks, hundreds of clubs throughout the state will not only stop paying the tax but recover past payments.

Olson's undoubted sympathy to the old-age pension problem may prove his biggest worry. Willingly or not, he secured a heavy pension vote and was generally considered back of those clamoring for increased pensions.A million or more voted for the $30-Every-Thursday plan Nov. 8 and dozens of pension bills are going to be introduced in the legislature. It is a moot question how far Olson could, or would, go in changing the pension setup but it's a mighty important item on his budget calendar.

While an accurate estimate is not available, it is calculated that more than 1,000 Christmas trees are being cut and shipped from the Lake Tahoe and Truckee River area. Silver tips are becoming scarcer and scarcer as time goes on. This beautiful specie of fir seldom is seen any more except in the back country where it is difficult to go. On Saturday one large truck of trees came to grief near Weimar when the driver lost control while passing a string of horses being taken below for pasture during the winter. Truck and contents went over an embankment but hte driver was unhurt.

Among summer residents gone out for the winter are the Matt Greens who winter in Sacramento and the C. O. aVlentines who go to Los Angeles for the cold season.

The Letter Box

Opinions expressed in THE LETTER BOX are are those of our correspondents and do not necessarily represent the opinions or policies of this paper. This column is open to all with little exeception.

Dear Editor:

I would like to see this letter published in your paper if you care to do so.

For a number of years the Truckee Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club and the businessmen of Truckee have donated financially toward the Winter Sports and to my estimation it has not been so successful and hasn't done much good outside of giving employment to a few men of the town.

I would suggest that we all get together and turn over a new leaf.

First of all, donate a certain amount of money to give a number of old men of Truckee a good Christmas dinner as tese poor, old men haven't the means and they are not going to be here to spend many more Christmas Days with us.

Second—Rent a hall and give a Christmas tree and dance absolutely free to everybody.

Third— Get in touch with a number of our Truckee residents who sing and organize a choir to sing Christmas carols. This would be entirely new and would offer lots of pleasureto all of the men, women and children of Truckee and its neighborhood.

People of other towns do these things so why can't Truckee people do likewise and have something new for a change.

A. J. Anderholden

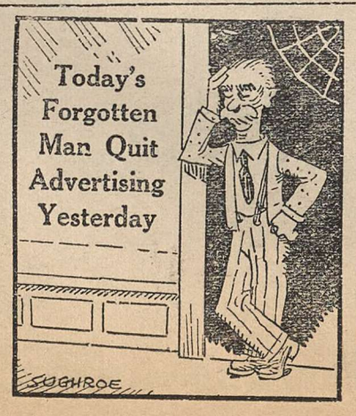

Dear Editor—

We wish to express our gratitude to the Fire Department, Fraternal Organizations, Business Housese and the Citizens of Truckee for the kindness, friendship and cooperation shown us duringour sojourn there.

Never before have we met with such congenial and democratic people. The cooperation shown us in the many enterprises we undertook in behalf of C.I.O LocalNo. 402 will long be remembered.

With sincere regret we left Truckee. Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy Prosperous New Year,

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Miller (Red)

TAHOE CITY GROCERY OPENED FOR BUSINESS AS STORE COMPLETED

TAHOE CITY, Dec. 8— The new Tahoe City Grocery opened its doors for business this morning. Owner M. W. Hull opened the Standard station earlier this week. Opening day had been deferred because of the fact that an daequate meat display case was unavailable. One came Tuesday and the formal opening was held today. A large stock of groceries has been delivered to the new store during the week and considerable interest has been displayed by the local people.

Governor and Mrs. Richard Kirman of Nevada enjoyed a trip around the lake on Sunday.

MAN LOSES LIFE AS LANDMARK IS RAZED

ANGELS' CAMP, Dec. 8 —(UP)— The old Calaveras Hotel, landmark or the early gold rush days in this mining town, was just a memory today afeter an early morning fire burned it to the ground with the loss of one life.

Eugene Berg, 28, a construction worker, was trapped in his second floor room and was unable to escape as the flames roared through the woodne structure. Several other persons weer hurt as they leaped from second story windows or raced down crooked stairways.

More than $100,000 damage was estimated, since the fire spread from the hotel into seven adjoining business establshments. Loss of merchandise was heavy.

The hotel became famous in the early days of Angels' Camp after the Rolleri family established it in the 1850's. The hostelry was enlarged from time ti time, a factor which many blocked halls, stairways and uneven floor levels. When the gold rush died down and the fame of Angel' Camp faded, the Calaveras Hotel remained open for business and prospered, even in recent years.

The Old Star Saloon and Cafe was also noted in the early days of the town.

MISS PRONZATO TO BE TAHOE ENTRANT FOR STATE WINTER QUEEN

TAHOE CITY, Dec. 8.— The Lake Tahoe Ski Club, encouraged by the success of its first dance, is anticipating holding another in the local community hall about December 17. The affair will be held the same type as the first, an atmosphere of winter sports prevailing. Full details will appear in the Sierra Sun next week. The public is invited.

The club held its regular meeting last Friday night, the principal business of the evening being the selection of a ski queen to represent the Tahoe club at the Seventh annual Winter Sports Carnival and ball to be held in Sacramento in January. A prmop report and entry to the carnival's officials is important this year as only the first 12 contestants entered will be allowed the $40 for expenses, the customary award of each queen entrant in the past.

Nominated for the position are Misses Mary Pronato, Eunice Duffee, Kathleen Starratt Anderson, Dolores Pyle and Marilyn Hinkle.

Miss Pronzato was elected from the difficult selection and will be Tahoe's entrant.

Miss Pronzato wa s also appointed by President Carl Bechdolt to supply the skiing news regularly to the California Ski News, which has invited the Tahoe club to share in this winter sports publication.

Some discussion was held in regard to the proposed new ski tow which the club is anxious to have installed before the heavy snows arrive. Some of the necessary parts have already been purchased and a directors' meeting on Monday night was held for te purpose of further discussing the most rapid and desirable method of installation.

A larg numbr of th club's younger members were on hand on Saturday and Sunday with axes and shovels cutting out the underbrush and stumps and small trees which must be cleared from the hill. Real enthusiasm and willing cooperation is evident on all sides.

Finally— take paper and pencil, and when noting Buick's surprising low delivered price, note also the extras it includes, the big reductions over last year, and the actual savings you can make by putting your dollars in Buick!

For the value's up mightily as you can see. And yet this great straight-eight actually costs less than last year—less than you'd expect—less even than some sixes.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 8 —(UP)— Spurred by an assurance f sufficient funds, the Sacramento County Grand Jury, investigating charges of legislative corruption, prepared to resume its inquiry.

The District Attorney's office issued a subpena for State Senator Ralph E. Swing of San Bernadino County bank officials and some officers of the National Orange Show.

ARTHUR H. SAMISH

Prosecutor Otis O. Babcock said he desired the legislator's presence in connection with a $5,000 payment to Orange show reportedly made to Arthur H. Samish, San Francisco lobbyist, as the 1937 legislature opened.

Babcock said the jury desired to know whether there was any connection between Samish, the legislature and the orange show.

* * * *

There was widespread speculation coeerning the future of the inquiry. Some believed governor-elect Culbert L. Olson, who as a state senator introduced a resolution calling for the investigation, would urge htat it be continued.

Meanwhile, special investigator H. Philbrick said Governor Merriam, who has financed most of the present investigation from his special secret fund, had requested a written report of the entire proceedings. The jury has been in session intermittently since last June. Numerous legislators have appeared before the investigating body, but there have been no indictments.

* * * *

Olson added two more more members to his cabinet with the selection of E. W. Wilson of San Francisco as state superintendent of banks and George C. Kidwell of San Francisco as chairman of the industrial accident commisssion. Kidwell replaces Charles A. Son of Los Angeles and as chairman, will replace Commissioner Timothy J. Reardon as director of the department of industrial relations. Reardon retains his place on the commission.

The incoming governor's concern over overcrowding in the state institutions already a matter of much study, was hieghtened by a fire at the Stockton State Hospital. The blaze cost no lives but did damage estimated at $50,000.

(ED'S NOTE: Since Mr. Dunlap completed this column Mr. Olson has appointed Russian-born Dr. Aaron J Rosanoff of Los Angeles as state director of institutions to succeed Harry Lutgens. The post pays $6,000.)

* * * *

Of importance to residents of populous San Francisco Bay area was the announcement by Public Works Director Earl Lee Kelly tht rail traffic on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge would begin January 15. At the same time the State Toll Bridge Authority passed a resolution providing for reduced tolls per passenger for local busses operating over the span.

The local stages will pay the same toll, 2½ cents a passenger, as paid by the interurban electric trains. The new rate at present applies only to the Key System, operating between San Francisco and several East Bay points.

* * * *

The State Board of Equalization said it would appeal an adverse ruling by the Sacramento Superior Court which exempted the Union League Club of San Francisco from paying the retail sales tax on meals and drinks served to members. Similar private organization would be exempted, the board contended, resulting in a loss of tax revenues of considerable proportion.

THE MAN AT THE KEYHOLE

by Operative WB

Bermuda, to most citizens, is chiefly famous for its onions. But to tired business men, harassed politicians and nerve-frayed humans with the railroad fare and the price of a steamship ticket, it is a new-found haven from toil—a sure cure for the nervous jitters. For Bermuda, coral-gemmed and remote from sophisticated pleasure, has horses and bicycles, but no automobiles. On its sun-swpt islands, there's no screeching of brakes; no honking of horns; no auto fatalities in morning papers. And Californians, say the newest reports of the travel bureaus, are trekking there—in constantly increasing numbers!

* * * *

Governor Frank F. Merriam, soon to retire, is on the horns of a dilemma. At the most, he can make a scant half-dozen death bed appointments to care for the faithful. And he has no less than a hundred applicants. Chief jobs within his appointing power—with fixed terms to protect the appointees—are two spots on the State Railroad Commission and several judgeships.

* * * *

Romping on some municipal playground—knocking balls around some city court—there's a new Don Budge; a new tennis star to fight America's battles in the world of amatuer tennis, now that Don Budge has gone professional.But where is he?Ask the scouts. They're still searching. But before a year is out, if history repeats itself, a new star will start skyrocketing;new history will be in the making. It's the way of sport—and the way of life. No one, however great, is quite irreplaceable!

Executive action for the sixth time stayed the execution of John and Coke Brite, condemned to die Dec. 9 on the Folsom gallows for the triple murder of three men in Siskiyou County. Governor Merriam advanced the execution to March 9, declaring he had been unable to reconcile opposing viewpoints of the State Supreme Court and the State Advisory Pardon Board. The court has advocated leniency but the board twice recommended against commutation of sentence. The Governor said he hoped the revised board which takes office with the new administration could reach a satisfactory solution.

Many Die in Bus-Train Crash in Snow Storm

Thirty-nine children, plus the driver—all the occupants of a Utah school bus—were either killed or injured when the bus was struck in a blinding snow flurry by a heavy Denver & Rio Grande Western freight train at a grade crossing near Salt Lake City. The death toll was expected to be about 25, as many of the survivors were critically injured. The driver was killed. It was the worst traffic tragedy in Utah's history. Note flecks of falling snow in these photos. Wreckage of the bus and remains of the victims were scattered for hundreds of yards along the right-of-way, but much of the bus is still on the front of the huge engine in the lower photo. The bus was crushed like an eggshell by the impact with the train, and bent into a narrow horseshoe.

SKI NOTES

The following items are compiled mittee of the State Chamber of Com-reports of the Winter Sports Commerce and the National Automobile Club.

At Donner Summit, Johnny Ellis has installed a second rope tow. This makes two in that location, one on Donner Peak and the other on Signal Hill.

Yosemite National Park as usual is ready for its winter season. During the past year, trails have been improved and considerable work done to make the season a memorable one for winter sports fans. One of the outstanding developments will be the installation of a rope tow on the nursery slopes. The sled type ski tows will again be in operation.

At Soda Springs, one of the finest ski tows in the west is being installed by Charles VanEvera. It is the J-Bar type, moor driven with variable speeds, and is equipped with roller bearings throughout. It will carry skiiers from a point near the railroad to the top of Beacon Hill, a distance of 1850 feet, and a vertical rise of 630 feet. A shelter house will be constructed at the foot of the hill. Many trails have been cleared from the top of Beacon.

Another tow is being installed at Rainbow Tavern. It is the same type as the VanEvera tow and is located just back of the Tavern, carrying skiiers 1250 feet with a 350 foot rise.

February 22 has ben selected as the date for the Invitational Club Meet at the Auburn Ski Grounds at Cisco.

The State Ski Jumping Championships will be held February 25 and 26 at the Mt. Shasta Ski Club.

Work has been progressing steadily at the grounds of the Auburn Ski Club this fall and many miles of new ski rtails have been cut through the hills. Also the surrounding slopes have been cleared and A, B and C hills are ready for the season. The new club house, available this winter, has been built to accomodate the ever increasing crowds of winter sportsters.

The work was done by WPA funds.
